BIO

Daniel Wan is an Asian/Italian actor who is based in Montreal, Quebec. Ever since he was young, Daniel was always in love with the art of acting. Performing in his first theatre play at the age of 8, he realized that being able to step into someone else's identity and showcase to the community different stories that other people in the world live, is something that brings him amusement and drive.

Graduating from The Dawson Theatre program (DOME), Daniel is excited to give voice to his Asian/Italian heritage while also giving the community entertaining and creative storytelling.
