ACTRA Apprentice

BIO

Gio is an aspiring actor, writer and creator born in Montreal. Developing a love for performing arts since his first visit to Stratford, he has had the joy of graduating from John Abbott College's Professional Theatre program (Pamela Montgomery Award recipient) and is currently studying Performance Creation at Concordia University. Gio's hope in pursuing a career in the arts is to create and/or participate in work that brings passionate communities of artists and audiences together. His work in Starcatcher Productions and Turtle Island Theatre's 2022 show Urinetown felt like a strong first step outside of school toward fulfilling that hope.
